Sir,

Sub: Forwarding the feedback from the stakeholders of affiliated college to ensure that curriculum remains dynamic and relevant.

The feedback suggestions from different stakeholders are compiled and forwarded to the University/BOS to ensure that curriculum remains dynamic, relevant and effective in realizing its educational and professional goals. Following are the valuable suggestions.

- The syllabus and the curriculum should meet the academic and professional needs of the students.
- Promote inter-disciplinary learning.
- Examination questions should reflect the learning objectives of the syllabus.
- C V camps should have discussions and deliberations on question papers before the commencement of valuation camps to ensure precise evaluation.
- The syllabus should align with the latest industry trends.

Kindly consider these suggestions on BOS and Curriculum Revision Meetings.

Yours faithfully

Sir,

Sub; Communication with the affiliating university for the feedback provided.

As we strive to enhance the quality of education, suggestions of the stakeholders are invaluable as they play a crucial role in refining our academic offerings to better meet the needs of students and the expectations of the professionals. Following are the list of recommendations for your kind perusal.

- Digital tools and resources should be incorporated into the curriculum.
- Establish a regular cycle for curriculum review and updates to ensure it stays current with advancements in the field.
- Include courses that focus on developing soft skills such as, communication, team work and time management.
- Gather insights from stakeholders like Alumni, Employers, Teachers and Students.
- Encourage group projects and peer learning to build team work and communication skills.
- Include formative and summative assessments such as projects and presentations, quizzes and exams to evaluate different aspects of student learning.

For your kind consideration and approval.

Yours faithfully

Sir,

Sub: Communication with affiliating University for the feedback provided.

We gather insights of our stakeholders on how our curriculum is being delivered and received. Their suggestions are so critical in helping us ensure that our educational practices are aligned with current needs and standards. They are, in fact instrumental in shaping future curriculum enhancements and meet the demands of the industry. Here are a few suggestions of the stake holders, tailor made for the pandemic period.

- Promote more virtual teaching classes to meet the demands of the curriculum.
- Provide a more creative alternative to experiential learning, OJTs and fieldwork during the pandemic period.
- Student feedback to be considered during syllabus revision meetings.
- Utilize digital tools and resources to make learning more interactive and accessible.
- Provide professional training for teachers in innovative teaching practices.

For your kind consideration and approval.

Sir,

Sub; Communication with affiliating university for the feedback provided.

We recognize that the success of our educational programmes depends not just on the curriculum itself, but on how it is delivered and experienced by all stakeholders. The first hand experiences of the Alumni, Employers, and Students are essential in helping us identify strengths and areas of improvement. Here are a few important suggestions given by the stakeholders.

- Incorporate emerging technologies into the curriculum.
- Introduce inter-disciplinary courses that bridge multiple fields to provide a more holistic education.
- Allow elective courses and flexible learning paths to cater to diverse student interests and goals.
- Introduce more active learning methods such as case studies, simulations and project based learning to enhance student engagement.
- Incorporate more interactive elements like discussions, Q and A sessions and collaborative tasks.

For your kind consideration and approval.
